

MilitaryReferralRoster.com Membership Terms

By accepting the terms of membership, you certify that you meet and will adhere to the following criteria:

You are currently licensed as a real estate professional in your state.

You actively serve the community surrounding the military installation(s) that you have chosen in your listing.

You serve military families in relocation.

You abide by all fair housing and equal opportunity laws.

You will keep your listing information on www.militaryreferralroster.com, including contact information, current and accurate to help other real estate professionals find you. Information listed by you in the website is exactly how it will print in the hardcopy version of the Military Referral Roster. Please verify that all information is correct.

You will attempt to provide high quality customer service to those customers that are referred to you.

You will follow up on all referrals sent to you by other members of the Military Referral Roster. Remember, the sooner you contact the customer, the better your chance of a sale.

Military Referral Roster does not set, participate in, negotiate, collect, distribute, or arbitrate referral arrangements or fees between members. All referrals are independently negotiated between referring and receiving members.

All referral agreements between members will be in writing.

The Referral Form provided by Military Referral Roster is only to be used as an example. Military Referral Roster takes no responsibility for the results caused by use of the form. You agree to hold harmless Military Referral Roster, its agents, associates, employees, and publisher harmless for any use of the Referral Form. All members should use their company's referral form or consult an attorney.

Any referral fees earned shall be paid by the receiving member within seven days of closing the referred transaction.

You will use members of the Military Referral Roster to send referrals to whenever practical. All military, government employees, and even civilian referrals are acceptable and appreciated.

You will provide referring members regular updates as to the status of the referred customer. Hopefully, this will lead to even more referrals, so be courteous and remember the "Golden Rule".

Remember, the more you use the roster, the better off everyone will be.

Your membership with Military Referral Roster will renew automatically on an annual basis. Your credit card will be charged at the subscription rate at the time of renewal. You will maintain a valid and current credit card on file or you may pay by check or money order as long as the payment is received by your annual renewal date. Subscriptions cancelled after renewal date will not be refunded.
